SUBJECT ASSESSMENT:

1. Attendance and Participation: 20%.
2. Seminars: 30%. This will be assessed by means of a brief essay (1,500 words maximum) on one of the seminar questions.
3. Final Essay: 50% of the final mark. The pass mark is 5 out of 10. The final essay will consist of an answer to one of ten questions on the units which make up the programme. The essay will not exceed 3,000 words, including notes and bibliographical references. The guidelines for the essays are available on the Campus Virtual.

Students who fail the subject will have the opportunity to resubmit their work in June. Their marks for attendance/participation and the seminars will be retained, if any. The criteria by which a piece of work will be judged are the following:

Assessment Criteria
Organisation & coherence of answer
Balance & coverage of the different parts of the question
Grasp of relevant ideas/concepts
Breadth of relevant reading
Analysis: evidence of critical ability
Effective use of examples to illustrate and justify the thesis
Referencing and bibliography
